

Volunteers Wanted!

*To help offer the community
a fun learning experience at NOAA's*

Ocean Discovery Day

Interact with visitors and staff by giving your time to help guests learn about the ocean and what NOAA is doing in our community.

No experience necessary.

We will train you if you want to help with an activity with which you are unfamiliar.

Event Date: Saturday, March 12, 2016
4700 Avenue U * Galveston, TX
